

The Guyana Islamic Institute

-commences another academic year

The GII has opened its doors on Monday, October 27, 2008 for the commencement of another first year residential program. With some ten students on roll, others are expected to join the program during the course of the week, Inshallah.

Students in session on October 27, 2008

The GII has over the years provided a sound intellectual and moral foundation for many students from Guyana and the Caribbean. Many of the GII graduates have since completed their studies at several Islamic and Academic universities and are serving the Muslim Ummah. Presently, some of these students are pursuing Islamic Studies abroad.