Islam Awareness Week 2008 March 7-16, 2008

-Highlighted follow-up programmes

The Guyana Islamic Trust has once again successfully held another edition of Islam Awareness Week under the theme "Honouring Human Dignity".

IAW 2008 gave spot light to persons returning to Deen over the year thereby creating more effective follow-up programmes. Additionally a host of other traditional events also featured during the awareness week campaign which benefitted and impacted upon thousands of persons across Guyana.

"Honouring Human Dignity" –the focal message for IAW 2008 was especially chosen in view of the topical wave of violence and dismay experienced across Guyana.

Some of the main events of IAW 2007 were:

- Public Presentations
- House to House Dawah
- Feeding Programme
- Live TV Call in Programmes
- Distributions of Tracts and literature
- Exhibitions
- Educational Sessions for Children and Adults
- Medical Outreaches
- Clothing Distribution
- Hospital Visits
- Seminars and skills Development

A few of the highlights of Islam Awareness Week 2008

Family Day and Fund Raiser-Scores of families generously supported an IAW Fund Raiser held on March 2, 2008 at the National Parks Grounds.

IAW 2008 was officially launched on March 7, 2008 at a ceremony held at the ISA Islamic School.

Great emphasis was shown during IAW in organizing and strengthening existing educational programmes for New Muslims

Scores of youths benefitted from various educational programmes during IAW 2008.

Sisters have been integrally engaged in the planning and implementation of IAW. Many forums were organized for Muslim women and children during the week.

Clothing distribution

No efforts were spared to ensure Clothing and Medical Care Programmes were delivered. Hundreds of persons have benefitted tremendously from these outreaches.

Medical Outreach

Keen interest shown at Exhibitions.

Public lectures during IAW 2008 witnessed large turnouts.

Giving the shahadah:
Young man testifying to the unity of Allah
